INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND VICINITY.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in His Town as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

Emmet Mullen spent Sunday in the metropolis.

Mrs. J. Rayburn returned from the city Saturday evening.

Joe Dowdall and wife are spending the week at Dillon's Beach.

Eugene Dutil of San Francisco was visiting his folks here Sunday.

Bill Hill, mixologist at Boyes Springs, was in town Monday on Jack Kelly's water wagon.

Al Benham, well-known drummer of Wellman-Peck Co., was in town Monday from the metropolis.

George Diebold of Agua Caliente was down from that town Tuesday shaking hands with his many friends.

Twenty carloads of fine X-mas beef cattle passed through here from Nevada last Sunday consigned to the Noonan meat market, Santa Rosa.

Rumor has it that another marriage will soon take place here. The contracting parties are a charming young girl of "Chicken Town" and a young business man of San Francisco.

A turkey raffle will be held at El Verano Villa on Sunday, Dec. 22nd. Mr. Lamotte has secured fifty lovely birds and extends an invitation to the public to be present and get an Xmas bird.

The El Verano Improvement Club met at the club rooms Wednesday evening and after the weekly business was transacted a banquet was held which was enjoyed by all present.

Every carpenter and contractor in town is working but one. Now, what do you know about that? All the summer resorts are building more rooms, etc., to accommodate guests the coming season.

Geo. Cornelius, a chicken rancher from Stony Point on the Lewis tract, was summoned to Santa Rosa the latter part of last week to testify in the O'Brien-Lewis water right law suit.

Sain Mannuck of chickentown will spend the holidays in San Francisco. Sain is a classy youngster and with his blue serge suit and dinky straw hat is one when he hits the Rue de Fillmore in good old Frisco. Sammie will return after New Years.

Tom Richards and Harry Miller of Agua Caliente left for Oroville last week to look after Theodor Richards mine at that place. Tommy will be home before Christmas and has promised all his friends hereabouts a nugget for a present, especially the ladies.

George Block of this place and Willie Block, Vineburg's fashionable young society sport, spent Sunday in the tules at Wingo hunting. The boys had some luck but it is rumored here that Geo. killed a number of mud hens thinking they were ducks, while Willie bagged two snipe, a rail and a teal.

Joe Hayden, who is organizing a physical culture class at Verano, was over Monday and informs the writer that everything is going along nicely. A number of applications have been sent in for initiation and this promises to be the wonder of the century. Mr. Hayden was formerly an instructor in New York City and at one time gave John L. Sullivan a course of this exercise.

Frank Gorbi and Larry Larsen returned home from Los Angeles Sunday evening after taking in the McCarthy-Flynn fight. El Verano's white hope made a good impression on the fight fans of the southern city and manager Larsen informs us that Promoter McCarey offered him a chance to try his white hope out the latter part of February, at which time the boys will again depart for the south with a staff of trainers.

T. N. Blakeman of San Francisco was here last Saturday on business.

Miss Monica Lyons of San Francisco is a guest at the Murray residence.

L. Lamotte went to the city Saturday, returning home Sunday evening.

Larry Larsen has accepted a position as lather with the Norrbom Bros.

Mr. R. Tracy of Cotati has rented the O'Brien ranch in the western foothills.

Ray Button, of Boyes Hot Springs, was in town Sunday in a classy rubber tired rig.

Miss Lucy Block has returned from Kenwood after spending several days with relatives.

Mrs. Pauline Graff was registered at the El Verano Villa the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Elvina Moore and Mrs. Wm. Wyatt spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Petaluma.

Louie Parente was up from the city the fore part of the week looking after his property interests.

A number of our bloods were buggy riding in the vicinity of Agua Caliente Sunday and after spending a few dollars the boys returned home.

Pete Kiel and Ed Gillan of Sonoma left for Los Angeles the fore part of the week, where they will spend a few weeks sightseeing.

Geo. Baines, wife and family left for Marshfield, Oregon, last Saturday, after spending several days with Mrs. Sarah Baines of this place.

Harry Baines, A. L. Hughes, F. LaFranchi and L. Baines, autoed to Santa Rosa the latter part of last week. The latter two joined the Order of Eagles.

Tony Leveroni, Press Davis and Wm. Wyatt went to Santa Rosa on Friday of last week as witnesses on the O'Brien-Lewis law suit.

P. W. Hawkinson of the Socialist party is making a hit in town this week sporting a Debs hat. This is the only Socialist hat in El Verano.

The private car "Alameda" passed through here last Saturday en route to the county seat. The head officials of the S. P. Co. were on board.

The grape vines which were pulled out of the P. I. Co's vineyard here are being hauled to Boyes Springs this week and will be used for heating purposes.

Frank Hock, a chimney sweep of note, was in town the fore part of the week. Mr. Hock, like tramp A. No. 1, has travelled all over the world and is some class when it comes to telling hobo stories.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey and family, who formerly resided here, were pained to learn of the death of their son, Thomas Lillis McCloskey, in San Francisco on the 12th inst. The young man had many friends here who join with the family in their sorrow in the loss of a son and brother. The funeral was held Saturday, the remains being laid to rest in Holy Cross Cemetery.

A jury composed of twelve prominent citizens of the county, who are trying the case of the Sonoma Valley Water Co. against the O'Brien sisters involving water rights, were here Monday looking over the origin of the spring that is in doubt also the water course sheds and land. They were accompanied by Judge Emmet Seawell, County Reporter Herbert Whitton, Deputy County Clerk John Burroughs, Bailiff Donald McIntosh. Automobiles brought the party down.

E. H. Cliff spent the latter part of last week in Santa Rosa.

L. L. Lewis of Berkeley was in town the latter part of the week.

A. E. Gaige, popular Glen Ellen butcher, was in town Saturday.

A large crowd attended the turkey raffle at the Dowdall ranch Sunday.

E. O. Gates was in Santa Rosa one day last week as a witness for L. L. Lewis.

John Cowan was in town Saturday from Kenwood shaking hands with friends.

Mike Cummings came down from Santa Rosa on Friday morning's S. P. train.

Albert Rossi has been advanced from fireman to engineer on our local freight train.

Geo. Campbell and Jesse Burris were Sonoma passengers for Santa Rosa last Friday.

All the farmers are jubilant over the rain which fell heavily the latter part of the week.

Carlos Emparan came up from Sacramento the latter part of last week en route to Sonoma.

Misses G. Andrews and R. Granice left for the city on Saturday morning's S. P. train.

Dr. Parramore of Boyes Springs spent the latter part of last week in Oakland and San Francisco.

Geo. Weaver and Henry Koerner, two prominent citizens of this town, transacted business in Santa Rosa Saturday between trains.

A large crowd from this place attended the minstrel show and dance in Sonoma Saturday evening and all pronounced it a fine event.

Lloyd Riser, a rising young man of this place, is raising a Prince Albert side burn whisker, which greatly becomes that classy young gentleman. "Are the barbers on a strike, Lloyd?"

A farewell dinner was given in "The Jungles" at Schellville last Sunday by P. C. C. who left the fore part of the week for Greece, where he goes to enlist in the army to fight against the Turks. Mr. C. C. has been a section hand on the Southern Pacific railroad for several years, and many railroad employees from Vallejo, Sonoma, Glen Ellen and Santa Rosa were present to bid farewell to the little Greek hero, who goes to help fight the battles of his native country. A large porker was roasted and many other things were served with it that made the feast fit for the gods. Plates were laid for twenty-five. "Archie McKiver," who was invited especially to report the event for the Index-Tribune, was called upon by J. Walton, the toastmaster, for a speech. He responded with a brief review of the Balkan war. John Basilou of El Verano, played some pretty Greek airs on his mandolin. Mont Akers of Shellville told a few live stories and P. Walton of Sonoma favored the guests with a vocal solo. A keg of Sonoma steam beer was the side issue, while the sparkling wine of Sonoma valley was used to wash the spare ribs down. "Easy Jim," the Index-Tribune's Vineburg correspondent, was present and sang "Nothing is too good for the Greeks." Mr. C. C. then delivered a farewell address and he remarked among other things that he was sorry to bid adieu to the beautiful Sonoma Valley but the "call of the wild" could not be resisted and to fight for his country he must go. With three cheers for the sturdy Greek warrior and the success of Greece the guests dispersed, after having had a most agreeable time.

Mrs. A. Chelini returned home from the Bay City Saturday after a short visit.

Claude J. Kirkman of this place will join the W. O. W. at their next meeting.

Word comes from good sources that Mrs. Emma Fetters of Fetter Hot Springs is negotiating with the Portland baseball team to come there and train this spring. With the Seals at Poyes and the Oaks at Caliente, Mrs. Fetters will certainly have the card if she is successful in landing the northern team and we all hope they will come to that popular resort.

BIGELOW LIBEL CASE DISMISSED.

Judge Campbell After Long Delay Renders Decision Against Plaintiff.

Judge Campbell, after a long and vexatious delay, on Saturday last rendered his decision in the case of Fetters vs. Bigelow charged with criminal libel, by dismissing the case.

This action of the Judge was no surprise to the people of Sonoma Valley, as his action in imposing a fine of $100 and one day's imprisonment against the lady plaintiff for contempt of court, some months ago, boded no good to her. The Judge's action, however, was set aside by the Court of Appeals as being arbitrary and unjust.

Midnight Christmas Service

On Christmas eve a rich, full, choral midnight service will be held in Trinity Episcopal Church. Beautiful flowers, altar lights, and chanted hymns by a large vested choir, together with the lesson of Christmas by the Rector—all will combine to render the service deeply impressive, and thus appropriately to usher in the Birthday of our Lord.

The public is invited to participate in this service, which will begin at 11:15 p. m., and close shortly after midnight.

Vegetable Seeds for Free Distribution.

Through the courtesy of Senator George C. Perkins we are now enabled to furnish government vegetable seeds to the readers of the Index-Tribune gratis. The seeds consist of peas, lettuce, muskmelon, onion, radish, endive and turnip. Parties desiring these seed will please call for them in person. They will not be given to school children without a written order from the parents.

Would Like to Rent

Would like to rent for a year with privilege of buying if satisfied, a small improved ranch from 6 to 10 acres. Modern house. On Sonoma Creek. Address 799 Oak St. San Francisco.

Ladies' and gents' clothing cleaned and pressed. We make them look good as new by our process of dry cleaning. Parrent, The Tailor.

THE INTERMEDDLER IS AGAIN REBUKED

Guy J. K. Bigelow, Who Sought to Use the Courts to Gain Notoriety and an Unfair Advantage, is Sat Down Upon.

The application for a writ of prohibition against the Board of Supervisors of this county by Guy J. K. Bigelow and Rudolph Spreckels to prevent the Supervisors from issuing liquor licenses until the roadhouse ordinance has been adjudicated by the courts, was denied by Judge Emmet Seawell last Monday after a brief hearing.

Supervisors H. W. Austin, Blair Hart, C. L. Patterson, Lyman Green and William King were in court in response to the citation.

The filing of the writ was obviously an attempt on the part of Bigelow to discredit the motives of District Attorney Lea and the Board of Supervisors to do their sworn duty by the people in the matter of the roadhouse ordinance, the validity of which is questioned, and thus seek an unfair advantage.

After the taking of evidence to show that the Supervisors had not threatened to issue any licenses and that they had already determined by resolution not to do so until the legality of the initiative ordinance had to be determined and there was no need of a writ of prohibition.

Supervisors Patterson and Hart and District Attorney Lea were called to the witness stand and testified as to the determination of the Supervisors in the matter and the resolution already referred to was offered in evidence.

The Schultz Estate.

Mary J. Schultz, by her attorney, Robert A. Poppe, filed the will of her husband, the late Gustave Schultz, for probate Wednesday in the Superior court. The deceased passed away November 22, leaving 13½ acres of land in the Sonoma valley, valued at $2,500, and personal property valued at $200. The estate is left to the widow and her son, Adolph Schultz, of Chicago. Henry Ebersole, named as executor in the will, declined to serve.

Sunday School Christmas Tree

The Christmas tree and Carol Service of the Episcopal Sunday School will be held Tuesday afternoon (Christmas eve), beginning at 4 o'clock.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES AND HAPPENINGS IN TOWN.

Doings of the Various Sets in this City and Its Immediate Vicinity--The Goings and Comings and Other Items of General Interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Nordstrom were local visitors in the Bay City Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lowell were visitors in the metropolis last Saturday.

Mike Cummings, our popular mayor, journeyed to the city Sunday and spent the day.

Misses Gladys and Bernice Small and Zoe Castex went to the city Saturday bent on a shopping tour.

Emil Cogelius was a passenger for the metropolis on Saturday evening's train. He returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. McElroy and daughter, Miss Edna, made a brief visit to San Francisco the fore part of the week.

Mrs. M. E. Murphy and Miss Florence Murphy were the guests of relatives around the bay Saturday and Sunday.

Harry Lubbock, formerly of El Verano, is now a house detective for Kahn Bros., the leading dry goods house of Oakland.

Misses Georgie Andrews and Ramona Granice took a trip to the Exposition City Saturday and did some Christmas shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Skelton Glaister and children, who have been residing in San Jose the past few months, came up from that place Sunday evening to visit Sonoma relatives.

S. Sebastiani, a prominent wine man of this city, recently arrested by an over-zealous fish and game commissioner for violating the game law, had a jury trial in Justice of the Peace Campbell's court Wednesday and was promptly acquitted. The accused was charged with shipping game unlawfully out of the county. He was defended in an able manner by attorney Frank Sprague.

Another "Reformer" Goes Wrong

It appears that Los Angeles has its "reformers," who need reforming themselves, as well as Sonoma Valley. A dispatch from that city under date of the 16th inst says:

"Guy Eddie, former city prosecutor and censor of public morals, was placed on trial today on the charge of having contributed to the delinquency of Alice Phelps, a minor. Pleas were made for further delay, but the court refused to grant another continuance and the task of obtaining a jury was begun."

A talking cat has been discovered in Germany. We can see nothing startling in this bit of news. Talking cats are not a rarity, as the hen-pecked hubby the world over can testify to.

Hay Market This Week

In their bulletin for the week ending December 17th, Somers & Co. say:

"Receipts of hay during the past week amounted to 2548 tons, a 25 per cent increase over last week's arrivals. This quantity seems to be more than enough to supply the present demand for the railroad tracks are at the present time rather crowded and the hay is not moving as freely as it was a week ago. The rain which has been quite general all over the State has done a tremendous amount of good and probably has caused a weaker feeling, or in any event has prevented any firmness from being apparent in the market."

"The interior hay trade in the section south of San Francisco is fairly good, although there is very little moving in the northern section of the State as there is an abundance of green feed in this section and at the present time holders of hay are rather anxiously seeking a market, but at present the hay is being held too high to warrant shipment to the bay section. Although there are no very large lots of hay being offered yet there are quite a number of small lots here and there which in the aggregate amount considerable."

Careless Hunter Shoots Into Car Window.

While the south-bound North-western Pacific passenger train was passing near the Boyes Springs crossing last Monday the passengers were startled by a bullet which came crashing through one of the car windows. It was evidently fired by a careless hunter. Fortunately the bullet did no damage except the breaking of the window.
